

Smart Money

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL MAGAZINE

your money's worth

DOG BEDS your pup can nestle into this winter.

WORTH IT

L.L. Bean's Dryweave Pet Bed ($40–$105) has a zip-off, machine-washable cover and a lofty, breathable insert that repels moisture and odor. It comes in two shapes—rectangle and circle—and four sizes.

NOT WORTH IT

Caddis's Corner Bed ($60–$90) has a wedge shape that fits nicely into a corner, but little place else. It also has no moisture or odor control, and it comes in only one size: extra large.

—Jason Feirman